DEPLOYMENT SUPPORT FOR FAMILIES & SINGLE AIRMEN

PLAYpass is here!

This new program is designed to help give deployed members with families and returning Single Airmen a break from the rigors of deployment. We're giving over $500 in discounts for FSS classes, programs and activities. A PLAYpass card allows you or your family to participate in FSS programs at no or minimal cost. Pay for your child's youth sports with the card, take a class yourself at Arts & Crafts or Fitness, for example or go on an Outdoor Rec adventure. There are lots of possibilities.

It's Easy!

All you have to do is visit myairforcelife.com to check your eligibility, and if you qualify, take a copy of the deployment orders to Airman & Family Readiness to sign up and receive your PLAYpass card. Then you're all set to start having fun. Going home to visit family during/after deployment? No problem! You can use your PLAYpass card at your nearest participating active AF base and enjoy their programs as well. The PLAYpass is valid for 90 days after the returning date from deployment.

For more information, contact Airman & Family Readiness at 671-3722.
